

We at AMCP Foundation are reflecting on managed care icons Judy Cahill and Cathy Carroll, and the impact they made through their service as AMCP CEO and President. Your continued support of AMCP Foundation helps us preserve their vision.

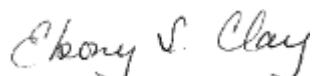

The ways in which your gifts honor their contributions to our profession include:

- Developing and updating initiatives that inform the public about managed care pharmacy, like the Managed Care Concepts series.
- Supporting future pharmacists, especially those with a passion for pursuing managed care careers in health and economics outcomes research (HEOR).
- Partnering with JMCP, and more!

Through the Judith A. Cahill and the Cathy A. Carroll Memorial Funds, we can ensure their managed care pharmacy legacy endures.

I was fortunate to witness these leaders in action earlier in my tenure as AMCP staff, so I can personally attest to their impact. I encourage you to watch this video illustrating why Judy Cahill will always be remembered in our AMCP and AMCP Foundation communities.

Thankful for your generosity – especially at Thanksgiving,

Ebony S. Clay, PMP
Senior Manager of Programs and Development, AMCP Foundation

Remembering Judy Cahill

"Judy mentored countless managed care pharmacy professionals, including me. Judy introduced many leaders to opportunities and pushed us into new experiences that we would not have otherwise considered. I'll never forget Judy. That's why I'm so thrilled that AMCP and AMCP Foundation have partnered with us, and with Judy's family, to open the Judith A. Cahill Memorial Fund."
