

Recommended Sessions for Students & New Practitioners

Build your NEXUS schedule with sessions selected to support career development, policy awareness, clinical knowledge, and readiness for the future of managed care pharmacy.

Tuesday, October 27

10:15–11:15 am PT | Port of San Diego 3

F1: Bridging the Competency Gap: A Career Development Framework for PharmD Students Interested in Managed Care

Explore the skills and competencies that can help you prepare for career opportunities in managed care pharmacy.

1:45–2:45 pm PT | Port of San Diego 3

L2: Federal Legislative and Regulatory Update

Connect current federal policy and regulatory developments with their effects on health care coverage, access, and decision-making.

1:45–2:45 pm PT | Port of San Diego 1

W2: AI in Managed Care Pharmacy: Opportunities, Risks, and Readiness for Decision-Makers

Examine the opportunities, risks, and practical questions surrounding the use of artificial intelligence in managed care pharmacy.

3:15–4 pm PT | Port of San Diego 2

F3: AMCP Talks: Residency Revealed, Insights from Current Managed Care Pharmacy Residents

Hear directly from current residents and bring your questions about residency pathways and the resident experience.

Wednesday, October 28

2:45–3:45 pm PT | Port of San Diego 3

F5: Ahead of the Curve: Emerging Specialty Therapies and Managed Care Readiness

Discover how emerging specialty therapies may influence managed care planning and decision-making.

Thursday, October 29

8:30–9:45 am PT | Port of San Diego 4/5

K2: The AI Debate: Advancing Humanity or Undermining It?

Consider the broader implications of artificial intelligence through a timely and thought-provoking discussion.